EULOGIZING THE DEAD.

Members of the Bar Speak of the Late Justice.

SESSION OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Resolution of Condolence on Death of Justice Bickerton—Court Adjourns for a Day—Attorneys Address the Court—All Speak Well of Deceased.

The December term of the Supreme Court opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Promptly to the moment Chief Justice Judd and second Justice W. F. Frear, with Circuit Judges W. A. Whiting and J. A. Magoo, entered the room. The chair used by the late Justice Bickerton was covered with emblems of mourning.

Members of the Bar present were President Sanford B. Dole, Minister H. E. Cooper, Attorney-General Wm. O. Smith, Deputy Attorney-General A. W. Carter, Marshal A. M. Brown, A. S. Hartwell, Cecil Brown, L. A. Thurston, J. L. Kaulukou, J. M. Monsarrat, A. Rosa, Enoch Johnson, W. A. Kinney, J. K. Kaula, Elia Helekuhni, M. Kesaloha, C. Creighton, A. Perry, A. G. M. Robertson, S. K. Kane, W. Luther Wilcox, W. S. Edings, Geo. D. la Vergne, L. A. Dickey, E. P. Dole, Geo. A. Davis, A. S. Humphreys, W. L. Stanley, W. Horace Wright and A. G. Correa. Sheriff Andrews of Maui and a number of prominent citizens were also present.

After the court had been declared open, Attorney-General Smith arose and spoke of the death of Justice Bickerton. Before introducing a resolution of condolence that had been prepared by a committee of the Bar, Mr. Smith desired to say a few words about the deceased.

May it please the Court, we have known our departed brother for many years, and our relations with him have been pleasant. In thinking of him and of his life, his relations with us and ours with him there is no one quality which has left a deeper impression on my mind than his unfailing courtesy. Justice Bickerton was a gentleman at heart; and in the course of trials where more or less feeling was excited, where there were disappointments, where of necessity advocates appearing before the Court had to meet disappointments, he never failed to treat all with gentleness and with forbearance. He had not had the advantages that some have had in his early life, the advantages of legal training, but he had a wonderfully good common sense. He had a gentleness of heart which made his relations not only with the members of the Bar, but with the jurors and the parties who came before the Court pleasant. I think it can be safely said that he never unnecessarily injured the feelings of anyone. It is fitting on occasions of this nature for us to pause and remember that we, each of us in our turn must leave all these associations, all these relations which are so dear to us and must appear before that higher Court. It is a matter and perhaps not inappropriate to refer to on this occasion, a matter of congratulation that the members of the Bar of this Supreme Court do maintain a high character, a character of integrity in their relations to each other and to the Court. This is not only due to their own instincts and their own characters, but it is also due partly to their relations with the Court. It is a matter pleasant to think of that the Supreme Court and also the Circuit Courts in their relations to the Bar pursued a course which has tended to elevate the Bar. This is not an occasion for many words. While the death of our brother was not unexpected, death always brings more or less of a shock. We will long remember Justice Bickerton, and it is with feelings of the deepest sorrow I take pleasure in presenting this resolution prepared by the committee of the Bar.

"WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His wise providence to remove the Honorable Richard Frederick Bickerton, First Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, by death, be it
"Resolved, That while we bow in submissive resignation to the loss which we have suffered in the removal by death of Justice Bickerton from high office as a justice of the Supreme Court, we hereby record our appreciation of his unfailing courtesy and his conscientious and faithful attention to the responsible duties of his position.
"That we hereby express to the family of the deceased Justice our sincere condolence and our sympathy with them in their sad bereavement.
"That this resolution be spread upon the records of the Supreme Court and that a copy be forwarded to the widow of the deceased."

Cecil Brown.—May it please the Court, on behalf of the Bar I would like to second the resolution read by the Attorney-General and to say that the late Justice Bickerton in all his dealings with the Bar, his dealings in all his relations with the people who came before him were, as set forth by the Attorney-General, gentle in every respect. His handling of cases at nisi prius I know has been talked of and he complimented upon his handling of those cases more especially as we all know that he was a man who had not had the training that the majority of the members of the Bar have had. He was in fact a self made man. My first acquaintance with the late Justice Bickerton was in 1875 when he was living at Waiwala. After that he came to Honolulu and there pursued his studies. He pursued his studies in the office of Mr. Jones and was admitted to the Bar and obtained a very fair share of practice. We all know that he was the office of Police Judge of the District of Honolulu, faithfully, fearlessly and satisfactorily to all parties, from which he was promoted to the Bench of the Supreme Court. And we all know, those who have had the pleasure of practicing before him before the change in the judicial system, that at trials at nisi prius he was fair, just and courteous and everybody practicing before him received their due without fear or favor. And in this loss that the Bar has sustained, and the Court itself, a loss which we all mourn, and we mourn for him although we know from his life and for the last few months of his living here that the change was a happy one. We also mourn for his family, but we have this satisfaction, that we know that his life here as a jurist, as a Judge of this Court, was such that no man can say anything against, and it is therefore with pleasure that the committee of the Bar has presented these resolutions and ask that not only should a copy be sent to his family, but also that with the permission of the Court they may be engrossed upon the record.

A. S. Hartwell.—May it please the Court I should like to say one word to express my entire accord with the resolutions and with what has been said about Mr. Justice Bickerton. I knew him first when he was manager of the Kalaia plantation, having the pleasure of being entertained by him on one occasion there. I observed him as he came in and out in this community for many years, as well as after he became Police Magistrate and a Justice of this Court. In an isolated community like this, in which it is said that the tongue of scandal, spite perhaps, is more than ordinarily free to wag, I certainly do not recollect ever having heard anything against Mr. Bickerton's integrity, impartiality and fair dealing.

And I certainly have never observed anything of that sort in my long acquaintance with him. It appears to me that he had excellent sense and tact in the affairs of men; in dealing with men, excellent tact also. A knowledge of law alone is very well, but is not enough either for a practitioner or for a judicial officer. More than that is required for successful practice or administration of the law. I think those requisites of tact, of common sense and of knowledge of men were possessed in a very eminent degree by Mr. Justice Bickerton. He also, it appeared to me, was in the habit of making a careful study of the facts in the cases before him, a simple enough thing to do, but still a thing which a great many do not do. I think he was in the habit of studying the evidence and formulating the facts in the case with a great deal of care and industry and precision; and for constant and careful consideration of all the statutes and rules of practice and the decisions of the Courts here which bore or might bear upon the case in hand, I think he was never failing. Certainly he left nothing to be desired in his record as an honest man, as a good citizen and as a fair judge, and I am happy in these brief words to express my view to that effect.

Charles Creighton.—If Your Honor please so much has been said that I may almost say that the ground has been entirely covered, but I desire to say a few words in order to express my sorrow at the loss of Justice Bickerton, a gentleman whom I knew well and intimately not only as a jurist but in social life. As a jurist I met him first, my first acquaintance with him being when he was on the Police Bench of Honolulu. After that he was promoted to the Supreme Bench under the old system of practice when the Justices of the Supreme Court sat at nisi prius and travelled on the circuit. I have had the pleasure on many occasions to travel with Justice Bickerton to the other islands on circuit. I have been his guest on the other islands and in San Francisco. I have seen him under all circumstances, when he was ill and under the most trying circumstances, and I must say that I have never seen him fail in that courtesy and gentle treatment to members of the bar for which he was noted. As has been remarked by the gentlemen who have preceded me, I think, as Mr. Brown said, as a trial judge it has been remarked very often by the members of the bar, no matter how trying, no matter how annoying, no matter how long and wearisome the case may have been, he still maintained that uniform manner and courtesy, no matter how ill he may have been. I remember the circumstances of one case when I was Deputy Attorney-General, the case lasting several days and Mr. Justice Bickerton at that time being ill, and yet notwithstanding his sickness and which I presume was the one he had been suffering from for years and which gradually increased and practically induced his death, he remained in the court room which was then below, until 5 o'clock in the morning. Numbers of incidents of that sort I have observed with him, and I must say that I wish to record my entire sympathy with the Court and with his family and with the Bar at the loss that we have sustained.

Judge Whiting.—Brethren I would add a few words in regard to one whose loss we all mourn. I cannot say that he was a life long friend, but for many Hawaiian life here he was a friend from the time I may say when I landed, now going on fifteen years, and not only was he a friend, but he was a true friend. I have known for years of his having this sickness, it dated back some years, I think some 14 years ago when he was first troubled with what eventually carried him off, that is an organic disease. At times he was more affected with it than others, but he concealed it for a long period. His suffering at times was acute but he bore it with the cheerful hope of improving and getting over it until the latter part of his life. It is undoubted that his knowledge of the world and of men and his great common sense enabled him to apply the law with the facts in a clear and just way. You cannot, any of you feel his loss more I believe than I, and I wish to go on record as one of those of his friends who greatly mourn at his loss.

Chief Justice Judd.—Judge Bickerton is the seventh of my colleagues who have passed away during my incumbency of this Bench which began nearly twenty-two years ago. The thought is impressive and especially saddening to me. Judge Bickerton came to these islands in 1874 and immediately sought employment and became manager in turn of the Waiwala and Kaalaesugar plantations. He thus gained much experience of Hawaiian affairs, as well as knowledge of the Hawaiian language. Soon after giving up plantation life he began the study of law here and was admitted to the Bar, upon examination on the 31st of May, 1877. He was quick to learn from others, and being facile in speech, was quite successful as a jury lawyer, having the patronage of several large business houses. Besides serving in several legislatures where he displayed his inherent honesty and independence he served as Police Justice of Honolulu, from August 16th, 1884, to December 28th, 1886, when he was appointed a Justice of this Court. All will admit that he was a remarkably good Police Justice. As a member of this Court for nine years his characteristics were, perfect honesty, fidelity to duty, common sense and conservative view of affairs. He was affable and of a happy disposition, a faithful father and an affectionate husband. He bore with patience and resignation the lingering and wasting disease that was long ago fastened upon him. His dignity, self respect and unimpeachable character are worthy of imitation. His life is a record of what a man can do in the profession of law without the aid of a University education or a law school, applying himself patiently to all the facilities within his reach until he attained the goal of securing the respect of his fellow men and the approbation of God. Let the resolution be recorded. In honor to the memory of our deceased First Associate this Court will adjourn until tomorrow morning.

Mark Twain Among Savages.

Mark Twain, who was entertained by the Christchurch Savage Club, says that he prefers the New Zealand "Savages" to those he had known in his native land. I should think so, with a banquet provided at £2 10s a head. Mark said that the Prodigal Son had a hard time of it, but he (Twain) had not struck it that way. Looking around on the "flowing bowl," and sort of thing, he said, he did not see much prohibition about the Savages, and he proceeded to tell the following story about a prohibition State in America:

A man was exhausted and needed a drink, but was told could not get a drink without a prescription from a physician. The man said, "For pity's sake, it don't want a physician's prescription to see that I am exhausted." "Well," said the druggist, "if you were suffering from snake bite, now, it might be all right." "Well," the man said, "where is the snake?" and he got the address of the snake, but soon came back, telling the druggist that the snake was engaged for six months ahead.—Ex.

LABOR IN THE COLONIES

Co-Operative Works System in New Zealand

SOLUTION OF ALL DIFFICULTIES.

Plan Explained in Detail to Attorney-General Smith—Wage Rates Fixed by Government Engineer—Labor Bureau Furnish Laborers, Etc.

The Premier of New Zealand in an interview with Attorney-General W. O. Smith made the following explanations of the system, which is well worth pondering over. It shows how much thought and care the government give to the governed. The Premier said in reply to a question from Mr. Smith.

We have another system which might prove useful to you, and that is in connection with the carrying on of our public works. We call it "the co-operative works system." We found here, after many years in the construction of our railways and large public works, that we got a certain class of contractor, who, when successful in his tender, naturally employed only the strongest and ablest workmen he could engage. Consequently the older and weaker class of men could not get an hour's work on our contracts, and they became knock-about on the stations or in the towns, or had to compete in the towns in the labor market. This, of course, was a very undesirable state of things. Well, in 1891 we abolished the old contract system altogether, and inaugurated the system of co-operative works. We got our engineer to fix the value of the work, and how much it will take to pay expert laborers 8s. per day, and the amount is fixed per mile or per yard on that basis. Then we allow a little over that for what was originally the contractor's profit. Each mile is then divided into four or five sections, and in allotting the work the married men in the particular locality where the work is going on have the preference. Some of them may never have handled a pick or shovel before. These men apply through what is called the "labor bureau." All men out of work in a district go to the agent of the labor bureau and have their names entered upon the list as being in want of employment. When the officer in charge of the work requires some men he sends down to the labor bureau agent, and says: "Send me up fifty men for this particular work." The men who are selected then form their own parties. At the inception of the scheme the idea I had was to get the strong men to work with the weaker laborers, but I found that human nature was, as usual, selfish. A section of railway was in course of construction at Westport, on which some four hundred men were working, and the engineer was instructed to divide the earnings equally among the number, but I was not long in finding out that the young men did not care to work with the older men. I had therefore to amend the system, and allow the parties to form themselves. The young and strong men get together, and the older men form parties amongst themselves by mutual agreement. You will find that the first-class men will make 8s. per day, and, perhaps, a fraction over. The engineer, of course, fixes the value at a fair value to the state and to the men. Second class men will make 6s. per day, and third class men 4s. per day. Previously, the latter were a class of workmen who could get no employment at all, and they are satisfied with the wages, as they know that is all they are worth. The inferior labor does not cost the state any more, although it takes the men longer to do the work. The rate of pay for the work is fixed at what is called a "living wage." Before this system was started the men congregated in the big cities, where there was no work of any kind for them to do. They became disorganized and dissolute, and often committed breaches of the law. We have stopped all that now. The men apply to the Labor Bureau, and are sent away into the country. I have known men who never handled a pick or shovel before they went on to the co-operative works earn 2s. 6d. per day or 1s. per day for a start, and, after a couple of months' work, made their 6s. per day. They are then able to send a little toward the support of their wives and families.

SCULLERS COLLIDE.

Two Myrtle Members Thrown Into the Harbor.

An event not on the regular Sunday program of practice with the crew of the Myrtles occurred in the bay Sunday afternoon. Several new members were out for a trial spin and while off Wilder's wharf two of the single sculls capsized. Norman Halstead and Olaf Sorenson, occupants of the boats, were thrown into the water.

Captain Soule, of the bark Martha Davis, which is lying alongside Wilder's dock, saw the mishap and threw several life preservers to the unlucky men. The launch of the Bennington also put out to the assistance of the rowers.

Halstead succeeded in catching one of Captain Soule's life preservers and made the best of his way to a buoy anchored near Sorenson was picked up by the launch and his scull righted so that he could get back to the boat house.

Halstead in the meantime was shouting loudly for assistance from his haven on the buoy. The crew of the Martha Davis put out in a boat to his rescue. His scull was righted and the unlucky sculler sent on his way, very wet, but thankful that nothing more serious had happened.

The capsizing of the boat was caused by the two sculls colliding. Sorenson was badly scared, but received no damage other than a good wetting.

Miss Lyons Weds.

Miss Isabel E. Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis J. Lyons, was married to Foster A. Davis by the Rev. Douglas P. Birnie at the home of the bride's parents at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. On account of the ill health of the mother of the bride the wedding was strictly private, only the members of the family being present.

BOTH HAD HEART TROUBLE

The Doctor Died, but the Patient Recovered.

An Unusually Interesting Case that Borders Upon the Marvelous.

From the Press, Corning, Iowa.

Sympathetic heart trouble completely and permanently cured, sounds like a myth or a fairy tale, and yet this was actually accomplished in the case of Miss Jennie Cox, of Corning, Iowa. This lady is very enthusiastic in speaking of her recovery, and when a reporter called upon her she readily gave the following statement of her wonderful cure:

"Yes, Sir; your information in regard to my being cured of heart disease is correct. For five years I have been afflicted with sympathetic heart trouble. I would suddenly become faint, my heart would cease to beat, and I could scarcely catch my breath. I would lie down, and only by the most arduous and diligent work could my friends resuscitate me. These attacks would overcome me from five to six times a week. As you are aware, heart disease is a malady that is rarely benefited, and from which one seldom recovers. In the hope of receiving medical treatment that would be beneficial, I consulted with the ablest physicians in Minneapolis, Minn., and in fact, all the best physicians whom I know, but none of them could relieve me. One physician, Dr. Dean, I especially remember, seemed to thoroughly understand my case, but, like the rest, was unable to cure me. He was afflicted similarly to myself and told me we would no doubt both die from this complaint. He actually died as he prophesied, about one year ago, of heart disease. One day my mother saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and without much hope of procuring relief but thinking perhaps it might benefit me a little, purchased a box. When I had taken a box I felt better. In order to be sure, I took three more boxes. This was a year and a half ago, and up to the present time, I have not had a single attack of heart trouble. I am as positive that they cured me as I am that I stand before you this moment and can truly and consistently recommend the remedy to all suffering with heart trouble. Indeed, I am only too glad to sound the praise of so worthy a medicine as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, palpitation of the heart, and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by HOLLISTER DRUG CO., wholesale agents for Hawaiian Islands and all dealers in medicine.

COFFEE FROM HILO.

First Consignment Sent Direct to the Coast.

On Tuesday, December 3d, the Lurline carried from Hilo thirty sacks of coffee consigned to J. A. Folger & Co., San Francisco. The consignment is the first sent to the Coast direct from Hilo. The coffee is from the plantation which Capt. Elderts bought from Mr. Sunter a couple of years ago. The plantation is situated about eight miles from Hilo on the Volcano road.

A Big Chief.

Sir John Thurston, the governor of Fiji, was interviewed in England recently. He said he kept order by moral force, and remarked, "If I were to tell a native to go in his hut and remain there for six months, he would go at once. The people have been trained for generations to obey their chiefs, and I as governor, they regard as head chief."

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. Y. Schenck, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter. Banner, when his little girl, two years of age was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says, "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. BROWN, SMITH & Co., agents for H. I.

A SCHOONER IS SIGHTED.

Seen by the Hawaii Off Lanai Flashing Signals.

Officials of Maui in Chase—Captain Peterson Reports Movements of the Elou—Cruising About.

[From Saturday's Daily.]

More information has been received about the mysterious schooner reported to be cruising about the islands. The steamer Hawaii, which left Honolulu Monday saw a strange schooner off Lanai. When first sighted the vessel was flashing signals. The Hawaii put into Maalaea and reported the matter to Sheriff Andrews. That official sent out a boat in charge of Deputy Sheriff Baldwin and Fred Carter. The officers reported that the schooner came close to the shore at Lanai two hours after they landed and showed a number of signals, but no answer being received put off again in the direction of Maui. It was impossible for the officers to follow, as no headway could be made in a small boat. Deputy Sheriff Baldwin was still at Lanai when the news was sent down by the Hall. There is reason to believe that the strange schooner sighted by the Hawaii is the same seen at Kauai several days ago and which the tug Eleu was sent out to capture.

Captain Peterson of the James Makee, which arrived last night, brought further news of the Elou and the strange schooner. He reports having left Hanalei Friday morning at 8 o'clock. The tug was seen a short distance from that place, and from what Captain Peterson heard before leaving, the Elou would leave shortly after departure of the Makee. Shortly after leaving Hanalei, Captain Peterson passed a small schooner, but did not think she was foreign, and capable of making the voyage from the Coast.

The Elou had been cruising about Hanalei since leaving Honolulu and would likely return to this port last night. Up to 3 o'clock this morning nothing had been seen of the Elou.

Diamond Head lookout reported the weather very thick outside last night, and in consequence nothing could be seen of vessels until they had passed the Heads.

A MEMORIAL OF COOK.

An Interesting Tablet Discovered at Botany Bay.

A most interesting tablet has come to light at Botany Bay. Writing to the Sydney Morning Herald, Mr. Joseph Pyett says: "On the southern shore of the entrance to Botany Bay, near the monument to mark the landing place of Captain Cook, there still exists a highly historical memorial, which seems to be comparatively little known, and I think a description of which cannot fail to be of interest to a large number of your readers. It is a brass tablet, blackened with age, let in the face of a rather high cliff, and now only to be read by climbing down with a rope from above. A few days since some friends and myself, hearing of this relic from some local fishermen, who refer to it as 'the plate,' sailed to this historic spot, and, with the aid of a new rope, completed the 'honorably dangerous enterprise' of reading the now almost indecipherable inscription thereon."

The inscription runs as follows, and, as Mr. Pyett remarks, the heroic style is delightful:

A. D. MDCCCLXX.

Under the auspices of British Science, these shores were discovered by James Cook and Joseph Banks, the Columbus and Meccenas of their time.

This spot once saw them ardent in the pursuit of knowledge, now to their memory this tablet is inscribed in the first year of the Philosophical Society of Australia

Sir Thomas Brisbane, K.C.B., F.R.S. L. and E.,

corresponding member of the Institute of France,

President

A. D. MDCCCLXXI

Mr. Pyett continues: "I don't know whether the Philosophical Society of Australasia, founded, according to this relic, in 1821, with Sir Thomas Brisbane as president, has still an existence as such; if so, why has this gem been so sadly neglected by them? There is a tradition among the fishermen that a man of stipendiary 'Old Mortality' was employed in times gone by 'to clean it up,' but the evidence of its present condition seems to point to the fact that when it received its last cleaning must have been a very remote period, for the 'salt sea breezes' have wrought and havoc, and now the letters are all run-ning into each other. If this record is worth preserving a little time longer, then it is clear that 'something should be done.' And, also, does it not seem a sad fact that this spot, also the first landing place of the 'First Fleet,' should become private property?"

India's Population.

The census of India just published by the English government shows British India to contain 287,000,000 people, with an average annual increase in population of 2,700,000. The number of children under five years of age is 45,000,000; the number of widows, 22,600,000.

War Ships for Japan.

Private letters from Japan announce the fact that the Diet will meet on Christmas day and will adjourn for the holidays. The naval appropriation will not come up before February or March, and the bill will then be passed without discussion. The same reliable information from the inside of governmental circles announces that the contents of the bill are already settled and will not be altered. It is certain that at least one of the ships will be awarded to the Union Iron Works of San Francisco.

In 1892, Mr. A. L. Goldwater, who owns three retail drug stores in New York City, having learned of the great value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds, croup and whooping cough, ordered a supply for his customers. It met with so much favor that he found it necessary to soon order more, and during the winter sold over two gross of the remedy. He says it gives the best satisfaction of any cough cure he has ever handled. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all dealers. BROWN, SMITH & Co., agents for H. I.

LAHAINA TERM OF COURT

Unusually Heavy and Prolonged Earthquake on Maui.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS NEW YEAR'S.

Teachers Regret the Retirement of Inspector-General Atkinson—Baseball and other Recreation Sports—Tennis Players Entertained—Socials Given.

MAUI, Dec. 14.—The first and most important case that engaged the attention of the Circuit Court at Lahaina was that of Henry Iwena, the Walluku policeman who shot and killed Ah Quai at Camp 3, Spreckelsville, between 8 and 9 o'clock during Saturday night, August 24th. The Chinaman when shot was about thirty feet distant, running and trying to escape arrest. After two days of trial (December 4th and 5th), Iwena was acquitted. W. A. Kinney represented the defendant and A. Rosa for the prosecution.

Another case of interest was that of the contested will of Mrs. Kapiki Walter, the contestants claiming that the signature to the said document was a forgery. During the day and evening of the 6th till between the attorneys were quite exciting. W. A. Kinney had against him Lawyers Rosa, Chillingworth and Richardson, these appearing for the contestants. At 1:20 a. m., the 7th inst., the jury brought in a verdict sustaining the authenticity of the last will and testament. Judge Magoon presided during this trial, as Judge Kalua was disqualified, the case having previously been brought before him.

Business before the native jury was finished and the court adjourned Thursday afternoon, the 12th inst. Judge Kalekau of Uluapala was acting in District Magistrate Helekanibi's position in Walluku pending the trial of the latter, soon to take place in Honolulu.

During Sunday night, the 8th inst., at 11:08 o'clock, Maui experienced an unusually heavy and prolonged earthquake shock. It lasted probably between twenty and thirty seconds. Bricks were shaken from shelves, and a denizen of Kulu reported all his stone walls laid low. The night of the 8th was an uneasy one—people slept little. About ten minutes after the first another slight shaking was felt, and then at 3:05 Monday morning a third shock made itself evident, but one being as violent as the first, but not so prolonged, continuing for ten or twelve seconds. Some people report that the first shock lasted for a minute or more.

The Makawao Road Board are busy grading and building roads through the Kula homestead lands.

The announcement of A. T. Atkinson's resignation as Inspector-General of schools is received with universal regret by the teachers of Maui. He was not only an efficient inspector but also a sincere friend of every teacher.

J. W. Bergstrom, of Honolulu, has been employed during the week in repairing the pipe organ of the Pala church. Mr. Bergstrom set up the organ several years ago.

On Sunday night, the 8th, Deputy-Sheriff King stopped a poker game at Kaluanui and arrested several young Hawaiians well-known in mauka Makawao. A native woman not being allowed to come into the game, got angry and informed the police. The culprits paid a light fine of seven dollars each, this being their first offense.

Wednesday evening, the 11th, Miss Beckwith entertained some of Makawao's tennis players at the Sunnyside court.

Miss Lydia Copp of Makawao is slowly recovering from a long and severe illness.

The Kula boys are talking of having some running, jumping and other athletic contests on New Year's.

During Saturday afternoon, the 7th, on the grounds near the beach at Lahaina, a baseball game took place between Lahaina and Lahainaluna nines. The former was victorious by a score of 25 to 24. It is said that the Walluku club will play the Lahainas at Lahaina January 3d, 1896.

A north wind is considered most unfortunate by the Lahaina natives. No fish can be caught when such a wind is blowing.

Recently the court and jury people took away from Lahaina about 100 bags of coconuts. Nearly every tree in the village has been stripped of its fruit.

The earthquake shocks of Sunday night and Monday morning caused pictures to fall from the walls of several Lahaina dwellings.

The old Baldwin homestead at Lahaina is being thoroughly repaired and renovated.

During Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., a pleasant dancing party took place at Lahaina.

Weather—Threatening a heavy storm, the wind alternating between the north and south.

Britain and Her Colonies.

At the Natal-Transvaal Railway banquet in London recently, Mr. Chamberlain said that the relations between Great Britain and her autonomous colonies were critical. The security of Imperial rule depended on the temper and tone in which Great Britain approached the coming problems. The colonists, grown into vigorous peoples with every element of national life to rank as nations, but as the possibility of separation increases happily the desire was lessened and patriotism was evidenced. He had no doubt of the ultimate union of Africa, but there would be much difficulty owing to the lack of local federation.

Scene in Police Court.

The usual serenity of the Police Court was disturbed on Friday morning by a scene not down on the daily calendar. Attorney Geo. A. Davis, who was defending a Portuguese on a charge of using indecent and profane language, lost his temper because Judge Perry decided against his client. The attorney indulged in some pretty plain language, which Judge Perry thought was against the dignity of the Court. Mr. Davis was asked to show cause why he should not be fined for contempt. The lawyer apologized for his remarks, which apology was accepted by the Court, and matters assumed their usual state.

BANQUET TO EMPLOYEES.

Mr. Young Remember Iron Workers—Birthday Celebration.

Saturday evening, the residence of Alexander Young, at Waikiki was the scene of a very enjoyable entertainment, being a reception given by Mr. Young to the employees of the Honolulu Iron Works, to mark his birthday, and recent return to Honolulu.

After Mr. Young had welcomed his guests in a few well-chosen words, he requested T. R. Walker to take the chair, and to superintend the carrying out of a vocal, musical and literary program, which Mr. Walker did in his usual happy manner.

The program consisted of Hawaiian songs by the Honolulu Iron Works Glee Club; a recitation by Mrs. Black; songs by Miss Bertha Young, Messrs. Montague, Brown, Crozier, Rowe and Hedemann, and a "Drummer's Story" by Mr. Dredge; concluding with a reel by several sons and daughters of Caledonia.

Refreshments of various kinds and generous quantity were then served, after which dancing, to the music of the Quintette Club, was indulged in until 11 p. m.

The evening was closed with toasts to Mr. Young, and the singing of "He's a jolly good fellow" and "Auld Lang Syne." The company separated after another of those pleasant and hearty meetings which occur from time to time in connection with the Honolulu Iron Works Co. and its employees.

AMERICAN BOARD DELEGATE.

Returning from Japan by the China—Public Meeting.

Information has been received that the A. B. C. F. M. Deputation that went to Japan to confer with the missionaries in that country in regard to contemplated changes in the management of the missions, have finished their work, and are returning on the China. If the steamer should arrive at such hours as to make such an arrangement possible, a public meeting will be held in Kawaiahao Church at 7:30 p. m. The public generally are invited to attend, especially all interested in the work of the A. B. C. F. M., to meet the deputation.

Funeral of Justice Bickerton.

The funeral of the late Justice Bickerton took place at 2 p. m. Friday and was among the largest ever seen in Honolulu. A short service was held at the residence by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh. The procession left Waikiki shortly after 2 o'clock and reached the Executive building about 3. The military escort, made up of Cos. E and F under command of Major Jones, with the Hawaiian band, police and mounted patrol, joined the march at that place. The weather was inclement and the participants on foot were thoroughly soaked by the time the return to town was made. Taps were sounded at the grave. H. H. Williams had charge of the interment.

Woman's Edition of Time.

The woman's paper which will come out this week will be much larger than the regular issue of the Time. It will be beautifully illustrated and is cheap at 25 cents. But if you want to get it for 10 cents be sure you buy it the first day it comes out. Better still, send in your orders at once to any of the committee or any of the news dealers, where the woman's edition of the Time will be on sale as soon as issued.

Several paintings of Howard Hitchcock's were sold to local people during last Saturday, the first day of view at Pacific Hardware Company.

SALVATION ARMY.

Program of Soul Saving Events For This Week.

The Salvation Army will hold their first Hawaiian council of war in Honolulu during the present week. There will be three large public gatherings in connection with the council. Both council and public meetings will be conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Egner, who are in charge of the Army operations on the islands. The special features in connection with the meetings are as follows: Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., opening meeting and welcome to Hilo comrades, also a few facts concerning the war by the Adjutant. Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., the giving away of our kamalis in Y. M. C. A. Hall Thursday, 7:30 p. m., also in the Y. M. C. Hall the pioneer officers for Maui will be farewelled, and Sister Monroe will be commissioned for the first appointment as a field officer.

At the close of the farewell meeting Thursday night, ice cream and cake will be served. At the first two meetings some one will wait at the door for a free will offering to defray travelling expense of officers, advertising, etc.

Big Banana Plantation.

There is a banana plantation in Cuba covering an area of fifty square miles, containing on an average 2,500,000 trees, and keeping in constant employment 3500 persons. A fleet of twenty-six steamers is required to transport the fruit to the United States. The banana is fast superceding the sugar cane in the West Indies. Its cultivation pays, where that of the cane did not.

The wife of Mr. D. Robinson, a prominent lumberman of Hartwick, N. Y., was sick with rheumatism for five months. In speaking of it, Mr. Robinson says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that gave her any rest from pain. For the relief of pain it cannot be beat." Many very bad cases of rheumatism have been cured by it. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all dealers. BENSON, SMITH & Co., Agents for H. I.

SLEEP AND REST

Are out of the question with Eczema. It is an agony of agonies.

A torture of tortures.

It is an itching and burning of the skin almost beyond endurance.

It is thousands of pin-headed vesicles, filled with an acrid fluid, ever forming, ever bursting, ever flowing upon the raw, excoriated skin.

No part of the human skin is exempt.

It tortures, disfigures, humiliates more than all other skin diseases.

Tender babies are among its most numerous victims.

They are often born with it. Most remedies and the best physicians generally fail even to relieve.

If CUTICURA did no more than cure Eczema, it would be entitled to the gratitude of mankind.

It not only cures but a single application is often sufficient to afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure.

CUTICURA works wonders because it is the most wonderful skin cure of modern times.

ISSUED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

W. R. FARRINGTON, EDITOR.

TUESDAY, - - DECEMBER 17, 1895.

THE earthquake on Maui seems to have been more severe than on this island. Report comes that it lasted a minute. This we doubt. Let any one take a watch and sit quietly to see how long a minute really is and he or she will find that a very few seconds seem a full minute. The fact that stone walls were shaken down, however, proves the greater severity of the shock. As to time it was evidently almost simultaneous with the shock here.

THE editor of Time had better read up the annals of past Legislatures. If memory serves us there was celebrated bill No. 90 or 92 of the Legislature of 1890 which covered the somewhat unsavory ground which Time is tripping over with hesitating feet. The subject was, in that bill, treated without gloves. It never got outside the House, however, and died a quiet death within it. There are, we believe, a few copies of the bill still in existence, and it might be worth Time's while to look them up.

THE municipality of Apia has taken time by the forelock in the matter of clearing out the lantana. An ordinance was published some time ago that the municipality would undertake the destruction of the pest. A recent Samoan paper publishes the names of the owners of lands whose estates have been cleared and adds significantly that in future "the occupiers or owners will be responsible for keeping the same free of the lantana weed." A similar ordinance twenty years ago would have saved thousands of dollars to the occupants of lands in North and South Kona, Hawaii.

"IAN MACLAREN," as the Scotch clergyman who has written such charming idylls of Scottish life calls himself, has fallen under the displeasure of the Southwestern Presbyterian for introducing the "subtle poison of humanitarianism" into his stories. He takes offense at the character of Dr. Maclure in "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush" because with all his kindness of heart and nobleness of character he was not "a professor of religion or even an attendant at church." But the "worst example" he finds in the story of Lily Grant whose dying hours are made happy and content by the deception practiced upon her by the loving, tender hearted Jamie Soutar. The story has drawn tears from eyes wherever the English language is read and yet this true blue pedant can see nothing in it save "the very doctrine taught unblushingly by Jesuit casuists that one may steal or lie for the greater glory of God."

THE Panama Canal is not as dead as most people think. An expert visited the old canal works recently and reports that the canal can be finished from where it now is for $9,000,000.000. The celebrated Panama scandal which wrecked the magnificent reputation of De Lesseps and dozens of minor men seemed a death blow to the entire enterprise, but there seems every probability that the money will yet be found for carrying the scheme on. We of course, are much interested in anything that will give a short water way from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Our geographical position makes us a calling place for all large vessels. The cable, useful as it would be now, would then be doubly so, as vessels would certainly call for orders. It is to be hoped that this gleam of hope from the Panama Canal may not prove a mere wind-o-the-wisp of newspaper gossip, but may become a thoroughly tangible reality. There are, we understand, 1500 men actually at work now, and 4000 are expected to be put on next year. The labor is chiefly drawn from the West India Islands.

DEVELOP OAHU.

The capitalists of Honolulu should baptize themselves. The island of Oahu needs developing as much as any island in the group. Honolulu is not all Oahu, it needs something back of it to keep the city going. The valleys and flat lands of this island are capable of supporting a large population and of producing fine crops. The success of the Ewa and Kahuku plantations, with their cane, should inspire others to invest in like enterprises. Both these places, a few years ago, were but grazing lands, over which a few herds of cattle roamed. Now they are raising five to six tons of sugar per acre. We understand that figures for a pumping plant for the proposed plantation between Ewa and Waiala are much lower than was at first estimated. We are told that such a plant can be obtained for $100,000 less. Such a plant will give a practically inexhaustible supply of water, and enable the planter to defy the seasons.

The coffee at Waianae is as fine as any on the islands, and there are dozens of valleys which could be utilized for the cultivation of coffee. The pineapple and fruit industry at Ewa is now proving a success, and Ewa is by no means the only place on the island of Oahu where fruit can be cultivated to advantage and with success. To give these industries an impetus cheap and convenient transport is needed. The success of the Oahu railroad so far shows what convenient transport will do. The business of that road is increasing month by month and will continue to do so as new lands are put into cultivation. This line should be pushed round the northwest end of the island and tap the two Koolaus. What we want to do is to keep a good percentage of the immigration in our valleys, to induce settlers to take up lands here. No one wants to see Honolulu become a New Bedford—a place that was, a mark on the map, shorn of all the advantages that it formerly enjoyed as a commercial capital. Other commercial centers are bound to advance, and it will not do for us to allow what we enjoy to gradually slip from our grasp. Competition is an excellent thing, and it is good for Honolulu to have competitors in other parts of the group, but Honolulu should learn the lesson that the fruit will not drop into its mouth; it must use its hands to pluck the fruit and its very best brains to guide the hands.

JAPANESE TRADE.

Some of our local dealers are beginning to feel keenly the competition of the Japanese. But it is not only Hawaiian dealers that feel the pinch. The Japanese are beginning to oust the manufacturers of America and Great Britain from the markets of the "Far East." In the matter of cotton goods the import of raw material has increased immensely in order to supply the manufacturers. To form some idea of the increase, the total number of spindles doubled from 1893 to 1894, advancing from one quarter of a million to half a million. Japanese cotton goods are now sold from Corea to Singapore. A watch company has recently been formed. The very best machinery from the States has been obtained, and very soon Japanese cheap watches will be following Japanese cottons. Japanese matches have pretty well revolutionized the unimproved match trade. Labor in Japan is so cheap, and its people are so excellently adapted for success in any line that requires manual skill, that once a manufacturing line is taken up with adequate capital it must undersell the products of nations whose workmen must have a good wage to even decently live.

Exactly how to meet the present competition here is not very clear. We cannot prohibit the import of Japanese goods; we cannot discriminate against them. It must be met, however, and our retail merchants are to be up and doing. From small beginnings great things grow, and complaints coming from some of our traders show that there is danger to all.

THE ALLEGED CONSPIRATORS.

The two men, Underwood and Sheridan, who are to be tried today have succeeded in earning a little notoriety. The evidence that the prosecution will present comes upon the testimony of, apparently, very reliable witnesses. The prosecution will, no doubt, try to prove that these men made overtures to persons here to overthrow the Government, that there was a plan to get an armed force from California to assist them. Should the Government make out its case the men will be undoubtedly punished to the full extent of the law.

One thing is proved, even now. The Government of the Republic of Hawaii is quite capable of taking care of itself. It has excellent information as to the movements of men who plot against it and is able to nip in the bud any little conspiracy that may be hatched up. Our friends abroad need not be at all alarmed about us. The Government is here to stay till it has served its end and worked out our political salvation by annexation to the United States. This will come as surely as the earth moves round the sun. This little abortive attempt at conspiracy can only have the result of strengthening the Government hands. It will make men of diverging ideas and interests cling the more closely together.

These may not be the last adventures who will come to these shores under the impression that the country is ripe for rebellion, only to find that there is no rebellious spirit here. There must be, always will be a party dissatisfied with the government, but dissatisfaction, keen criticism and even abuse do not constitute a spirit ready to handle guns and the very imminent risk of getting into trouble. Egged on by misrepresentation from people whose wish is father to the thought, there can always be found hot headed and desperate tools enough to make an effort at causing trouble, but this Government is quite strong enough to take charge of such material and no one need get into hysterics over it either.

THE Chinese in the Hawaiian Islands must have improved by transplanting from their own country. We have a very large number of their children in the public schools and considerable number attend private schools. No such ideas seem to gain credence among them as are reported from Hong Kong, where last year most of the schools were emptied like a flash owing to a rumor that the Government had resolved, in order to stop the plague, to select a few children from each school and to excise their livers in order to provide the only remedy which would cure plague patients! A few years ago there was a similar clearance of the schools upon a report that the Government was going to select a girl from every school to be buried alive in order to ensure the success of an aqueduct. Certainly our Chinese know better than this.

THE Kinau of today will bring the last names to be put in nomination for the Senatorship made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Notley. Up to the present two names are before the voters of the Island of Hawaii. Mr. Alexander Young and Mr. H. L. Holstein. Mr. Young, though a resident of Honolulu, is strongly connected with Hawaii by his large plantation interests. Mr. Holstein is a lawyer, resident in Kohala. As soon as the nominations are before the public we shall be prepared to discuss the merits of the candidates.

A LITTLE careful investigation on the part of those who care to get good information and not street talk will reveal a fact that up to yesterday the price of opium had not gone up. Perhaps a big cargo may be landed during the night, but it is rather doubtful, seeing the guards are on the alert.

THE "NEW WOMAN."

The newspapers in various parts of the world make themselves merry over the "new woman." Her extravagances of dress and manner have afforded the comic press an unlimited field, which has been used sometimes gracefully and more often very coarsely. But the true "new woman" is no such creature of the imagination. She is assuredly here with us and she is here to stay. Her influence is already very large and the day is not far distant when it will be immense. With the spread of education the position of women in the state has changed. At all times she has had an indirect influence upon the current of public affairs, especially among the hardy nations of Teutonic stock, a stock whose offshoots have ever held woman in the highest estimation and honor. At the present time, when so many thousands, aye millions of women labor independently and no longer look to marriage as the only means of obtaining a livelihood, woman is naturally desirous of making her independent influence directly felt upon the great social and political questions of the day. Why should she not? A bright, well educated, self supporting woman has every right to express her views in public and when opportunity occurs to attend personally to the conduct of government. It is but extending the theory of the home. It is woman that has made that word all that is sacred and holy and beautiful in our minds and in our inmost hearts. Why should not the same influence be extended to the state? The men of this community may rest assured that the more woman has to do with guiding of the state the better and truer is the state policy likely to be.

The experiment made here, of having some ladies as members on the Board of Education, has answered admirably. They at once made their influence felt throughout the group. They have made themselves personally acquainted with many of the teachers and with the working methods of the schools. We should not stop here, however,—there are other branches of the state departments that women are quite capable of fitly guiding and we hope that the day will come when such departments will have the advantage of such guidance. That our remarks will raise a howl of derision from some quarters, we have little doubt, but none the less woman will live that derision down and those who scoff now will change their opinion and be only too glad to have the highest minds of the community devoting themselves to the general good.

THE choice of a legal gentleman to fill the position made vacant by the death of Judge Bickerton is now before the Cabinet. One suggestion is to advance Judge Frear and fill the bench by the elevation of Judge Whiting now of the Circuit Court. The name of Judge Cooper, now Minister of Foreign Affairs, is also mentioned as a possible appointment. There are many very capable men at the bar who would make very excellent judges, but a lawyer in full practice hesitates to throw up what is so lucrative for the modest income that we can afford to pay our judges. Another appointment to be made is that in the Circuit Court. Judge Magoon is anxious to return to his private practice. For the position the name of Alfred Carter is mentioned. Mr. Carter is well qualified for the position. Then there is Judge Antoine Perry who has done admirable work as Police Justice. Though young, he has shown good common sense and strong decision of character, which, with a good legal knowledge, are very valuable in a judge. The Cabinet and appointing power should not find it difficult to choose able, hard working and conscientious men to fill these positions and satisfy all in the community except dandy in the wool partizans.

RACES ON NEW YEAR.

Fourteen Horses Entered for the Meet—Success Assured.

The race meet at Kapiolani park on New Year's day promises to be very interesting. There are more entries for the occasion than at any previous races. This is not to be wondered at when it is remembered that an experienced and capable manager as Charles David is at the head. He has labored in and out of season to make the affair successful and, judging from the number of entries, it would seem there is to be no question about it.

Up to midnight last night, closing of entries for the races, the following horses had been entered: Lottie L, 290, Twenty Cent, Rainbow, Charleston, Billy C, Confederate, Margaret H, Marine, Jr., pacing mare by Marine, Unknown, Emin Bey, Joe Donald, Jr., Shenandoah.

The cyclists have until 5 p. m. Friday to enter, at Thrum's bookstore.

The Largest Fire Engines.

What are claimed to be the largest fire engines in the world are the two built in London by Messrs. Merryweather & Sons. One is capable of throwing 1400, the other 1800 to 2000 gallons of water per minute. The machines weigh three and one-half tons each, and can be easily drawn at full gallop by four horses.

Overturned a Lamp.

The occupants of one of the rooms in the Popular House on Fort street caused a little excitement at 1 o'clock yesterday morning. A woman upset a lamp, and before it was extinguished the bed and netting became ignited. By the aid of a few buckets of water the fire was subdued. The damage amounted to $50.

A Significant Departure.

With the departure of another year when a review is made of the condition of affairs, it is only right that some thought be given to the physical body which enables everyone to battle with life's problem and figure for themselves the profit or loss on the trial balance sheet. Though the bank account may be large and each one's material gain be great, it would not be surprising if it suddenly dawned upon many that good health has been greatly impoverished by the low condition of the blood. It is in this state that the lactic acid in the vital fluid attacks the fibrous tissues, particularly the joints, making known the local manifestations of rheumatism. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier, a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. HOBSON DRUG CO., wholesale agents.

Timely Topics

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

You often hear the remark made about "Silver Beauties" but we are the first to adopt the phrase "Aluminum Beauties."

These goods are one of the many useful as well as ornamental articles we offer our patrons for the holidays.

ALUMINUM TOILET SETS

These goods are something new in Honolulu and should be seen to be appreciated.

The sets consist of hand mirrors, comb and brush. They are guaranteed PURE ALUMINUM and will not tarnish like Sterling Silver, is not as heavy and has no plating to wear off. In speaking of the merits of the Hair Brush we are warranted in saying that it is the most sanitary brush made, the entire surface is aluminum, and the bristles besides being surrounded by the aluminum, are securely held in a strong cement that is absolutely unaffected by water, whereas the wooden blocks ordinarily used, quickly shrink from frequent wetting and drying and become loose, and it is impossible to keep them clean.

We have these sets in engraved back and raised gold filigree work. The combs in white celluloid and tortoise shell. The mirrors are of the best French plate and heavily silvered. These goods are remarkably cheap; you will be surprised when you hear the price. In connection with these goods we wish to mention our Pocket Whiskey Flask. This article is made of heavy silver with neat design in silver and enamel. Especially appropriate for gifts to your traveling friends.

The Bradley and Hubbard Lamp is the standard for the world. Where you see the stamp B. & H. on a lamp you can rest assured that you are getting the best. It gives the best light, is as easy to light as gas and has the double center draught. No soiling of hands in extinguishing or lighting of this lamp. We carry a fine line of this lamp in the Piano, (with stand) Banquet, Study, Hanging and wrought iron hanging styles.

Another neat contrivance is the 5 o'clock Tea Lamp, placed on a wrought iron stand with Brass Lamp and Kettle, and is a work of art in metal goods.

When making presents to your friends why not give them something useful instead of an article that is all for show. They will constantly use any or all of these articles we have mentioned, and consequently their attention will always be attracted to the articles and the donor.

THE PRESENT WOMEN

They Read Newspaper Advertisements to Find Bargains.

WORKERS IN ALL FIELDS

Nothing Educates Like a Good Daily.
Must Read to Keep Posted—Household Regulations—Lincoln's Aphorisms—Talk With a Teller.

Did you ever seriously consider the responsibility that rests upon your shoulders when you overlook the best part of the newspapers—the advertisements—and what you are losing by so doing?

Take up your morning or evening paper, read carefully the local news, read that first as it has more direct interest to you than the balance of the news columns. When you have read those, digest just as carefully the foreign news, how Mrs. Potter Palmer who was given the highest honors that are possible for a woman in the United States to receive is entertaining society at present, how women are gradually, but surely making names for themselves by taking positions of honor and trust, and branching out as lawyers, brokers and business agents.

All this enables you to converse intelligently on the topics of the day, and what is going on outside this little island world of ours. It ought to become as much a part of your education to know of these matters as it is to be able to superintend the running of the household.

Last, but not least, read thoroughly the advertisement of the dry goods merchant, grocer, book, crockery, furniture and hardware stores, in fact any advertisement that calls your attention to all kinds of wearing apparel and household goods. It is not more than fair to the merchants who spend hundreds of dollars yearly in the columns of the daily papers and give their time and energy as well to construct an advertisement that will catch your eye. They tell you of the many good things they have to sell, the merits of the same and why they offer them to you.

Many a woman has lost a "bargain" by not reading the advertisements and taking advantage of a special limited sale. We quote from an extract of an interview printed in Printers Ink of "How a woman of family reads the newspapers."

In speaking of advertisements she says: "The best proof that women do read such announcements is the fact that so many advertisements appear in the papers. I like ads that describe briefly and honestly the article advertised, and mention the prices. I do not see how a dealer can afford to be dishonest in these announcements, because women of experience will not submit to being fooled very often, and if they are led to go to a store from false pretenses in an advertisement they are naturally very angry, and avoid that store as much as possible thereafter. That part of Lincoln's aphorism about your being able to fool some men all the time, does not (in the matter of shopping at least) apply to women. But they know that "bargains" are constantly being offered by the stores, and they are always on the alert to take advantage of bona fide offers."

SHIPS OF LONG AGO.

First Report of a Steamship in Any Port.

MR. EDITOR:—The appended clipping is from a Liverpool newspaper which I discovered between the leaves of an old book of sailing directions formerly belonging to my grandfather. This is of interest only from the fact that it is the first report of the arrival of an ocean-going steamship in any port of the world. Further, it serves to show the great advance made since that day in the size of sea-going steamships. The Savannah was of 350 tons burden—nowadays a vessel of ten times that tonnage excites only a passing interest.

Very respectfully,
B. G. GOODMAN.
Master Schooner Robert Lewers.
Honolulu, Dec. 16, 1895.

"Liverpool, June 21, 1819
Among the arrivals yesterday at this port, we were particularly gratified and astonished by the novel sight of a fine steam ship, which came round at half-after seven, P. M., without the assistance of a single sheet, in a style which displayed the power and advantage of the application of steam to vessels of the largest size, being 350 burthen. She is called the Savannah, Capt. Rogers, and sailed from Savannah the 26th of May."

WALLER WALL IN DEMAND.

He is Wanted by Co. D—The Sharpshooters Object.

There is a movement in military circles to have Waller Wall run for first lieutenant of D. Many of the officers favor that gentleman for the position, but the Sharpshooters Company, of which Mr. Wall is first lieutenant, are loath to part with the services of so able a member and staunch friend.

In order that the matter may be settled definitely, a special meeting of the Sharpshooters will be held this evening.

Daily Advertiser 75 cents a month. Delivered by carrier.

CIRCUS STILL POPULAR.

Good Crowd Last Night—Matinee Tomorrow—New Program.

The circus appears to have lost none of its popularity. The tent was comfortably filled last evening and the new program was noted a genuine success. Lydia Laydhurst and Lahl Sing had an ovation tendered them that was fit for a king. The show will not exhibit their artists this evening. An entire new program will be presented at the matinee and evening performances tomorrow. In order to give the performers a chance to rehearse, no performance will be given this evening.

Fourteen new features will be given Wednesday; the bareback artists will show what they can do in other lines. Some features will be seen that were never before witnessed in Honolulu. P. H. Montgomery will have his trained horses into a condition that will please both old people and children.

At the matinee tomorrow, the management has arranged a schedule of prices that will surely please the matrons. Children are to be admitted into the gallery for 10 cents, and accompanied by their parents will be seated in chairs for 25 cents. The Wednesday matinee and evening performance will certainly be one worthy of going to see.

The circus management say something near 100 reserved seats have been sold for this evening. Holders of these tickets are notified that proper recognition will be made and the seats held for Wednesday's performance. Marshal Brown and a party of ladies and gentlemen witnessed the performance last night and were very much pleased with what they saw.

Advantages of a Clean Ship's Bottom.

It is stated that after five or six months' use, unheated warships require 20 to 25 per cent. more power to maintain ordinary cruising speed than when clean. The increase of power required is from 40 to 50 per cent. more after a year afloat.

Robinson Block, Hotel Street.

K. Furuya, extends a special invitation to the ladies of Honolulu to visit his show rooms and examine the new stock of superior porcelain ware, embroidered screens, fancy table, cloths, etc. These goods are far better than is usually offered for sale.

Salvation Army Meetings.

The Thursday meeting of the Salvation Army will be held at the Christian church instead of Y. M. C. A. hall, as previously announced. Tuesday night's meeting will be held in Y. M. C. A. hall, and the ice cream festival will be held on Wednesday evening, after meeting; also at Y. M. C. A. hall.

The St. Andrew's fair and sale will take place this afternoon and evening in the Sunday school room. A lot of useful articles will be offered for sale; also a number of handsomely dressed dolls. There will also be flowers and ice cream on sale. Drop in a few minutes and take your purse along. A small admission for entrance will be charged.

TO HONOR AMERICANS.

The Emperor of Japan Will Recognize Diplomatic Courtesy.

A prominent naval officer attached to the United States fleet on the Asiatic station has written to a brother officer at Vallejo that there are well-defined rumors at Tokyo that the Emperor will soon confer great honors on many of the diplomatic and consular officers of the United States for services rendered during the war with China.

It is not unlikely that Minister Dun at Tokyo and Minister Denby at Peking will soon be ornamented with the coveted decorations of the Rising Sun. This is the highest honor granted to any persons except those of royal birth. Many other Americans whose conduct was pleasing to the Emperor will be granted minor titles. Consul Jernigan at Shanghai and Consul Seymour at Canton, Hixon at Foochow and Reed at Tientsin are among those to be favored.

Major C. T. Platon is manager of the State Hotel at Denison, Texas, which the traveling men say is one of the best hotels in that section. In speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, Major Platon says: "I have used it myself and in my family for several years, and take pleasure in saying that I consider it an infallible cure for colic, diarrhoea and dysentery. I always recommend it, and have frequently administered it to my guests in the hotel, and in every case it has proven itself worthy of unqualified endorsement. For sale by all dealers. BENSON, SMITH & Co., agents for H. I."

SEVERE SHAKES ON HAWAII

Bottom of the Crater Falls in and the Fire Disappears—Prediction of the Guide Verified—Holds on Tight—Liquor Sellers Painful Accident.

KA (Hawaii), Dec. 11.—Ma-pele is with us once again. Last Sunday night at 11 o'clock, it gave us a warning of her return in the shape of a severe earthquake, followed shortly afterwards by another, and one more shake 3 A. M. (Monday). From reports, the earthquakes were felt throughout the island, and more severe in a radius of thirty miles from the volcano. At the volcano it was very light. Saturday evening, the guide at the Volcano House returned from the crater greatly excited. He predicted that something was going to happen, as the gases were making an uncommon noise, such as had not been heard for over two years. Sure enough fire appeared in the crater Sunday night, with a small flow in one corner of the pit. Pele's return has been expected for some time, for during the last few weeks she has given several forcible reminders.

FIRE DISAPPEARS.
LATER.—Dec 12.—4 A. M. A telephone from the Volcano House last night stated that the bottom of the crater had fallen in again and the fire disappeared.
Several heavy showers during the night.

James Boyd of the interior office is here inspecting Government lands and homesteads.

Walter Dolloway, manager of the Half Way House, has lost a very important paper, supposed to have been taken from his hotel. No questions will be asked if it is returned.

Pila Bob, man of chores for Col. S. Norris of Kahuku, met with a painful accident while chopping firewood. He split his foot, and it will be some time before he can use it.

Deputy Sheriff Yates has been making raids on illicit liquor sellers. One Kato (Chinese) was arrested for peddling rum-shoo. Five dozen bottles were found on his person. He was tried before Judge Waipulani and fined $50 and costs and given one month's imprisonment. The next was Ernesto, Portuguese. His house was searched and fifteen gallons of wine found. He pleaded guilty to selling liquor and was fined $100 and costs. Liquors of both charges were confiscated by the Government.

FOUNDER'S DAY.

Program of Exercises for the 19th at Kamehameha School.

Founder's Day at Kamehameha schools December 19 is, and justly so, the great day of all the year. Its raison d'être has been many times told. The following is a brief program for its celebration: At 10 o'clock part of battalion, headed by band, will form at Nuuanu and King streets and march to the cemetery, where military honors will be paid to Mrs. Bishop's grave. After playing the dirge, decoration of grave, etc., returning, the line of march will be by the same route. At 2 o'clock the literary exercises will be conducted by boys and girls at gymnasium of manual schools. No outside speaker has been invited. A sketch of Mrs. Bishop's life will be given by one of the girls, and an appropriate poem of Whittier's read. A speech by one of the boys. His theme, "Her aim, our obligation." Another interesting feature will be the decoration of Mrs. Bishop's picture by a graceful floral ceremony set to music. A song will be rendered by boys and girls, the music and words composed for the occasion by Miss Clymer, of the girls' school. Founder's Day hymn, written by Mr. T. J. Penfield, of manual school, set to music by Mendelssohn, will be sung by boys. Scholars of preparatory schools will sing two appropriate selections. The representative of the Alumni Association will make a brief address. At 3:30 o'clock sports will begin. Usual events. Punahou will be represented by eight contestants for prizes offered.

THE KING OF ASHANTI.
King Prembi of Ashanti, the African monarch who has defied England and has a war on his hands, possesses 3,000 wives, has 3,000,000 subjects and leads a big army of 100,000 men and 10,000 horses. He wears a girdle of dried grass and a crown of feathers and is a very powerful man.

The grounds are in very poor condition, the recent rains have not improved them; this added to the lack of practice will interfere with any surprising records.
Mr. Bishop desires the day to be a very pleasurable one and provides liberally for the boys and girls enjoyment.
The dinner to be given at 5:30 is always one of the events of the year. It will be served for the girls in their school, while the boys of Preparatory and Manual Schools will dine together at the Manual schools.

CROWDS AT THE CIRCUS.

Another Change of Program for Wednesday's Matinee and Evening.

Seats Can Now be Obtained Without Extra Charge—Steeplechase a Drawing Feature of Show.

The popularity of Wirth's circus was not dampened in the least by last week's showers, as shown by the large crowd in attendance at the matinee and evening performances on Saturday. At night the tent was simply packed, and but few more could have found room under the canvas.
The change of program is surely one for the better, and greatly pleased the large audiences. The midgits, Elsie St. Leon, Katie Montgomery and Muriel Wirth did new turns, and were loudly encored for their graceful performances. Little Elsie St. Leon performs on the high trapeze in a manner that would do credit to an old professional. Muriel Wirth rides a horse bareback in graceful style, and, as the Flower Girl, she is simply delightful. She carries a basket of roses, and while standing on the horse's back distributes her flowers around the audience. Lahl Sing, who is about as clever an all-round performer as is ever seen in a ring, has several new features to act. On the horizontal bars, trapeze and in juggling Sing shows up just as graceful as his daring act on horseback. The other members all have new acts, but the steeplechase simply brings down the house. The clowns and the children grow closer attached at each performance.
There will be an entire new change of program Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and at the evening performance. The tent is in better condition than ever since the rain. Seats can be reserved in the future without extra charge. Choice localities can be obtained every afternoon after 2 o'clock and kept for those reserving them for the regular price of admission.

LABORERS FOR THE PLANTERS

HAVING JUST RETURNED FROM Japan, where I have been in the interests of the labor supply for our plantations, I am prepared to furnish any number of laborers under the only practicable plan yet put forth.
MY PLAN as set forth in the prospectus of Ogura & Co., requires the planters to pay the passage money of the laborer to this place and other expenses after arrival. $25 passage money for each male and $20 for each female.
After investigation of the subject, I am satisfied that it is the only plan by which laborers can be recruited for this place and be reasonably sure of obtaining them.
I most respectfully request that your orders be placed with me as soon as possible in order to secure the approval of the authorities here and to enable me to have the laborers recruited quickly.

OF INTEREST TO MANAGERS OF PLANTATIONS.

A Model Plant is not complete without Electric Power, thus dispensing with small engines.
Why not generate your power from one CENTRAL Station? One generator can furnish power to your Pumps, Centrifugals, Elevators, Plows, Railways and Hoists; also furnish light and power for a radius of from 15 to 20 miles.
Electric Power being used saves the labor of hauling coal in your field, also water, and does away with high-priced engineers, and only have one engine to look after in your mill.
Where water power is available it costs nothing to generate Electric Power.
THE HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC COMPANY is now ready to furnish Electric Plants and Generators of all descriptions at short notice, and also has on hand a large stock of Wire, Chandeliers and all Electrical Goods.

MISS FIELD LOUDLY APPLAUDED.

The Building Filled to Overflowing. Well-Bordered Program—Encore in Order—Wray Taylor's Effort a Grand Success as Usual—Christmas Cheer.

Mr. Wray Taylor's concert for the Lepers' Merry Christmas took place at Kaunakapili Church on Saturday night. Fortunately the weather "held up" and the large building was filled to overflowing. Every seat was occupied and extra chairs had to be supplied. The performance commenced with an organ solo, Overture by Clark, played in a masterly manner by Mr. Wray Taylor. This gentleman took full advantage of the capabilities of the instrument, now thundering forth in full and rolling chords and anon giving most exquisite bits of melody on the flute and stop diapason.

This was followed by a sextette Reverie in G, Fauconier, with B. L. Marx, first violin; J. Lightfoot, second violin; E. Kopke, flute; Wray Taylor, cello; C. Hedemann, bass, and W. L. Fletcher, piano. This called forth an encore. The instrumentalists of Honolulu are a credit to the city—their playing is scholarly and artistic and does credit to their careful practice together. Miss Kulamann Ward's sweet soprano voice was heard to advantage in Hawley's "Because I love you dear." In response to an encore she gave Parker's "I know a bank." De Beriot's concerto for violin was artistically played by Miss Elenore Ingerson. This young lady is a new addition to our musical circles. She was loudly applauded and played a short encore piece in response. Miss Kate Field gave a dashing rendering of "The Spanish Mulatree's song," adding to its effect by the merry clack of the castanets.

The house was clamorous with applause on the conclusion of the song and would not take no for an answer to its unanimous demand for an encore, which Miss Field gracefully accorded. The chorus of girls from the Kawaihau Seminary sang the Corn song in costume. The song is descriptive and afforded opportunity for some very pretty grouping. A piano solo, "Mont-guard," Kalkbrenner, was brilliantly played by Miss Alice Rice. Her technique was excellent, while she showed great power of expression. Miss Rice responded to an encore with some brilliant variations on "Home Sweet Home." A selection of airs on hand bells by three pupils of the Kaulawela school concluded the program. Mr. Armstrong Smith is to be congratulated upon his success in training the boys. "Aloha Oe" and "Hawaii Pono," played on the organ by Mr. Wray Taylor, sent the audience home pleased with the performance and satisfied that the Lepers' Merry Christmas was assured.

About $200 was realized, which amount may be swelled when further returns are known from tickets.

JUDGE HART PROTESTS.

Rev. Sereno Bishop Quoted in Denial of Charges.

MR. EDITOR:—In your issue of this date you quote the Revd. R. S. McArthur as saying, at Calvary Baptist Church, New York, on the evening of the 1st inst. that, "The worst forms of heathenism were revived under Kalakaua who formed the Hale Naha Society. Liliuokalani who succeeded her brother Kalakaua, was little better than he."

Against this assertion of one who claims the character of a Christian gentleman and is said to be a minister of Christ, of Him who said "Judge not, that ye be not judged," I say, against his assertions, allow me to quote words of another avowed follower of the Man of Gethsemane, one who, born in this country, has lived in it high unto, if not over, the three score and ten years spoken of as the span of human life. I trust the Revd. gentleman will pardon this personal allusion, seeing that it is made to accentuate the comparison of his kindly and no doubt just observations with the statements of one who has only spent about twenty days in this community and whose knowledge of the affairs of which he writes has reached his ears from lips, possibly moved to utterance by those hidden influences that you, sir, so tersely allude to in this morning's issue of the ADVERTISER when speaking of the difficulty of getting at facts. You say, "What then will be the case when the question is of political events, when intrigue will play its part and the actors will be led by party passion to represent history in different aspects?" He whose words I wish to pit against the glib detractor of a woman's character is one we well know, the Rev. Sereno Bishop, a son of one of the early missionaries to these islands. The reverend gentleman who has so eloquently told the world how much we of an alien race owe to the Hawaiians, shortly after Kalakaua's death gave utterance as follows:

Kalakaua, King of the Hawaiian Islands, has closed his long and prosperous reign. During his reign the kingdom advanced from comparative poverty to great wealth. He had been himself the honored guest of the Emperors and Kings of powerful dominions on both sides of the globe. At home his palace was a center of social distinction. He closed his career as the guest of a great nation, partaking of a constant series of ovals until near his end. To his obsequies were gathered more than 100,000 people. The Charleston, with trailing flags and displaced spars, has brought home the honored remains of our King. The reverend gentleman further alluded to "tears" which he could not "repress." Being of an emotional nature myself and knowing what anguish is, I refrain from harrowing up the souls of your readers by further reference to the reverend gentleman's lachrymal experiences.

May I, sir, however trespass on your space for a few words more and again to quote words of the reverend gentleman. He said: "By the death of Kalakaua now comes to the throne his sister. . . . She enters upon her reign with the confidence and good will of the native people, as one who has long and earnestly labored for their social and moral improvement. We believe her heart and mind kindle to the desire to save her wasting race."

You, sir, with many of your readers will doubtless admit that men are more apt to face about than women, especially than women who have "long and earnestly labored for the social and moral improvement" of their fellows.

Thanking you, sir, in advance, for your courtesy in admitting this letter to your columns.

I am, yours obediently,
CHARLES F. HART.
Honolulu, Dec. 11, 1895.

REV. BISHOP REPLIES.

He Deems the Remarks of Judge Hart Unfair.

MR. EDITOR:—I am sure that Judge Hart is too honorable a gentleman intentionally to misconstrue another's language, although he has placed a very wrong light on the words used in The Friend of February, 1891, about Kalakaua and Liliuokalani. The former had been just brought home dead; the latter had just ascended the throne. I deemed it wise and fitting to speak all possible good of both, and use no words of criticism or censure. In the presence of death, animosity gave place to genuine sorrow—not assumed, as your correspondent seem to think.

Like very many persons in public life, Mrs. Dominis has exhibited two sides of character, which have been quite opposite. I wrote in the hope that her better side might predominate and help to save her wasting people. That hope was not fulfilled.

I should qualify Dr. McArthur's observation that "Liliuokalani was little better than her brother, by saying that, while even more perverse politically, she never, like him, surrendered herself to heathen practices, although occasionally participating in them, both before and after becoming queen, of which I have the most unquestionable evidence, as I already had when I wrote kindly of her. Because I then omitted to say so does not belie my later assertion of the fact.

S. E. BISHOP.

THE HILO DRUG CO.

Opening of the First Drug Store on Hawaii.

It is with pleasure we welcome the arrival of Mr. E. B. Barthrop into our midst and congratulate ourselves upon having such an enterprise started by one so qualified and enterprising as Mr. Barthrop has shown himself to be. The new firm is filling a long felt want and no doubt will reap a harvest from their venture. It has been clearly demonstrated, by the opening up of this firm, that Hilo only lacks in new life and young blood. The physicians no doubt feel grateful to the new firm, as they will find it a great convenience and assistance to them in their practice. The firm is located on Front street and have a very neat and well stocked store. They are prepared to do a wholesale as well as retail business.—Hilo Tribune.

Mr. Barthrop, manager of the above mentioned business, is well and favorably known in Honolulu. The store is a branch of the Hollister Drug Company of this city.

A WESTERN POKER STORY.

Four One Spots Held by a Gawkly Stranger in a Game in Nevada.
[Special Correspondence.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 11.—It was yet an hour before the train was due here today when, having read the last page of the latest magazine and extracted all the news from the morning paper, I strolled into the smoking car in search of amusement. There I found a typical westerner of the earlier days regaling another with a story and sat down behind the pair and listened.

"Waal, as I was saying," the speaker continued, "the wust sold lot of gams I ever knowed was out in Eureka, White Pine county, Nev., some four or five years ago. Eureka was a lively mining camp them days, and of course there was a poker game running wide open in the one big saloon there. I had some business out there that year that kept me in Eureka for four or five days, and when I hadn't anything else to do I useter watch the game. Sometimes it was real amusing.

"One day in particular they was a stiff game on, and a tall sort of feller, wearing a billed shirt and a long coat and a stovepipe hat, come in. He was so tall and thin he was just natchally gawkly, and he had a thin beard that made him look worse than he would of looked without it. He stood around awhile, with his hands in his coat tails, and finally the boss, who was playing in the game, sung out:

"Say, you, dontcher wanten play a little?"

"Waal, perhaps I do," says the feller. "What's the limit?"

"There ain't no limit," says the gambler.

"How much are your chips?" says gawky.

"Twenty-five cents," the gambler replies.

"Waal," says the stranger, "lemme have a hundred dollars' worth."

"Waal, they give the feller the chips, and he stacked 'em up in front of him very slow and deliberatelike. Then I noticed that his hands was thin and his fingers was long—just right for poker. He pulled a big roll out of his pants pocket, and the fun began. Pretty soon that roll was gone, and then he took one from his hip pocket and then one from his inside coat pocket, and every one of them was as big as your arm muscle. He seemed to have 'no end of money. Bimeby he began to win his rolls back, and then the other feller's money began to give out, and then they all dropped out but one. Then the feller that had dropped out looked at their friend's hand and put up their rolls till they was all gone, which wasn't long, for the rates was sometimes $250 a clip. Then the money drawer of the bank was cleaned out, and then gawky leaned back and pulled his chin whisker with one hand and said to his opponent, real slow and easylike:

"What have you got?"

"I've got a full house," replied the gambler sarcastically, then, imitating the stranger, asked, "What have you got, you orkard, ministerial looking son of a greenhorn, may I ask?"

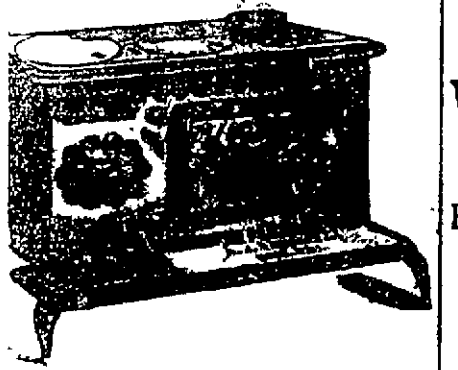

"I have four one spots," said gawky, grinning, while his long fingers reached out toward the pile a little mite. "Might they be good?"

"Say, I never saw a feller broke up like that gambler was as he shoved over the money. We all felt sorry for him, especially when we found out that gawky was a Mississippi river steamboat gambler and stood away up in the business. He cleaned out a lot of camps later that same year, and he done it always in the same way—by having rolls enough and big enough to outlast everybody else in the game. Say, he was a corker, that feller. He told me in Salt Lake afterward that he made a good deal more money out of the miners the year he went out to Eureka than he ever did anywhere before in the same time. But he never hit the Eureka feller again. You can put that in your pipe and smoke it."
